

Agenda

DAREnet Exchange of Experts: Volunteer Management and Spontaneous Volunteering

24 June, INTERSCHUTZ, Convention Center Hannover

09:00 → 09:30	Arrival and Registration
09:30 → 09:45	Welcome Dr. Christian Illing (German Federal Agency for Technical Relief)
09:45 → 11:00	Forms and Terms of Volunteer Management Dr. Tamás Tímár (Békés County Directorate for Disaster Management): International Flood Response Coordination – voluntary organizations in integrated disaster management systems and operations Dr. Brigitta Sáfár (Hungarian Red Cross): Caring for volunteers in flood events – psychosocial preparedness as integrated part of overall volunteer management system Zsolt Kelemen (Budapest Firefighter’s Association): Volunteer Manager –A tool to organize the exchange with and programmes for volunteers Taina Hanhikoski (The Finnish National Rescue Association): Volunteer management and volunteer-authority cooperation in the Baltic Sea region
	Discussion
11:00 → 11:10	Coffee Break
11:10 → 12:00	Digital Volunteering Ramian Fathi (VOST THW): VOST THW - From idea to operation and use case: flood in West Germany 2021

	Patrício Torres (VOST Europe): The spectrum of cooperations between VOST and authorities / uses cases of VOST activations in Portugal, Mozambique and Spain
	Discussion
12:00 → 12:30	Lunch Break
12:30 → 13:50	Solutions for the Involvement of Spontaneous/ Unaffiliated Volunteers Carina Pussnig, Sandra Nestlinger (Austrian Red Cross): Use case Team Austria Raimund Heiny (Bavarian Red Cross): Team Bayern – experiences and lessons learned with involving unaffiliated volunteers Yasen Tsvetkov (National Association of Volunteers in the Republic of Bulgaria): Working with spontaneous volunteers as a national representative organization of the voluntary fire fighters Stefan Hanke (Johanniter): Mobile Helpers – The useful addition in civil protection
	Discussion
13:50 → 14:00	Results Dr. Christian Illing (German Federal Agency for Technical Relief)

